

WASHINGTON, April 14.—The following telegram contains the latest information received at the War Department relative to the trouble in Wyoming:

“ OMAHA, Neb., April 14, 1892.—In obedience to his instructions, Col. Van Horn, with three troops of cavalry left Fort McKinney at 2 o'clock the morning of April 13, and arrived at the T. A. Rauch at 6:45, where he received the surrender without bloodshed, of Major Wolcott and 45 men, with 45 rifles, 41 revolvers, about 5,000 rounds of ammunition, and 46 horses.

He holds them now at Fort McKinney as prisoners until further orders from me. The Governor of Wyoming has requested that these prisoners be sent to Douglas, Wyoming, and says, owing to the excitement in Northern Wyoming, he will not at this time go to that section.

Unless otherwise instructed I will send the prisoners to Douglas, Wyoming, under a suitable guard.

JOHN R. BROOKE,
Brigadier General, Commanding.
